St. Teresa's School held a fundraiser to benefit the Izzy Foundation. The Izzy Foundation has 2 rooms at Hasboro Children's Hospital. One on the Oncology floor and one in the surgical center. Both rooms serve families of patients who are currently being treated for pediatric cancer at the hospital. They provide meals, snacks personal hygiene products and most of all, they provide comfort.

The Guevremont family was a tremendous help with our fundraiser. Hannah Guevremont, a freshman at St Raphaels Academy collected donations from students at St Raphaels Academy. Paul & Sue Guevremont reached out to the St Teresa's Knights of Columbus #57 who generously donated 100.00 in supplies and Knights of Columbus St Thomas Council generously donated 500.00

This Fundraiser for the Izzy room was held in Memory of Jason Normandin Jr, who is our student's brother Austin Haskins.

Because of you and your generosity to the annual Appeal, students and their families are served through the Catholic School Office.

Thank you for your gift.

May & June 2021 Annual Collection

Dear Parishioners,

I would like to start off by thanking all of you for your continued support during the days of this awful pandemic. Many people are unemployed or under employed and are struggling to get by and pay their expenses. Churches are much like families and COVID-19 has hit many parishes and faith-based organizations particularly hard. We are no exception. While our parish has been getting by, we still have to confront the daunting task of paying our bills. We kept our head above water for several months, but now our bills are piling up higher than our income.

As a result of our several capital campaigns over the years, we have not had an annual collection in quite some time. As you all know, one of the things that I do not like to do is ask people for money. However, given these trying times, we will have a special annual collection this Spring. I am sure you have received your May and June budget envelopes by now, you will notice an annual envelope with three suggested amounts. Personally, I gave $250.00. I ask that you pray over it and give to the amount you feel comfortable. With the help of all parish families, this special collection will help to get us on the right track.

Once again, I thank you from the bottom of my heart for your faithful support, dedication and prayers. May God bless you, your families and this wonderful parish.

Yours in Christ Jesus,
Fr. David G. Thurber, Jr.
Pastor
